Dawning of a new year

A beautiful sunrise heralded the start of the new year.

As 2022 began, photographer Fraser Gray, who often captures pictures around the borough, snapped this shot of the dawn over Royal Terrace Pier and the LV21 lightship.

The historic vessel, now a floating arts space, is moored at St Andrew's Quay and hopes to welcome visitors back on board later this year.

'I CAN'T BELIEVE HE IS ALIVE'

Pensioner's shock as pet mauled by another dog

A pensioner has spoken of her horror after her daughter's spaniel was mauled by another dog in an unprovoked attack.

Diana Dunbar, 83, was taking Mog out in Shorne last week when another dog ran towards them.

She said: "It was like a lion attacking their prey."

"It came over the top of the gate and went like a bullet up towards us."

"The dog ran towards me and rolled me over on the ground."

"I was screaming and was hysterical."

"The dog was shaking him by the throat and I could not help."

"If the owner had not come, the dog would have been dead. It was out of control."

Mog needed emergency treatment but is now recovering at home.

Diana was injured when the other dog knocked her to the ground, leaving her leg badly bruised and swollen. She added: "It was the most horrific experience."

"I cannot believe he is alive."
