Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: We would like to object to this planning as he has already managed to get one plan through . This is another blow to the valuation of our property and would cause significant stress and problems to our day to day life . I am convinced he will continue to apply for further planning until there are 10 houses on the site . I would urge the council to consider very carefully and listen to the views of people who will be directly affected by these disastrous application.

Kind regards
