Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am very much against this being developed With the possibility of this site having well over 700 cars added to the seriously over used A227. The potential of thousands more people wanting usage of our doctors surgery (already with an inability of getting a doctors appointment within a week). Also a school that cannot get any larger. The intended site is good farmland, and I have seen many different crops grown upon it, destroying this will be counter productive for England. None of the roads in this area are capable of taking any more traffic, they are narrow and could not support any diversions if needed. the area near shops is already a black spot for accidents. Close by the conservation area, this is also land that has not, and should not, be released from the Greenbelt boundary.

Kind regards
