Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We were here 20 years ago. Planning permission was declined then and it should be again now due to the huge environmental damage it would cause to green belt land and in White Post Lane itself at the entrance to, and along the boundary of, the proposed site (damage which has already been started both now and in the early 2000's). Nothing has changed in the intervening years for the original decision to decline planning permission to be overturned.

Kind regards
