Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Parking in Coombe Road and surrounding roads can already be very busy and adding in more rooms to this house will result in more traffic (either car or motorbike/ electric scooter). A bin store in the back garden will also result in more bins left on Coombe Road, and with this being a shared property it is highly likely these will end up permanently left on the pavement. There is no need for this small house to hold 8 or more people (we can't assume all rooms are single people, all couples mean 16 people in there!) it is overcrowding.

Kind regards
