Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is the 2nd time a similar application for change of use of property has been considered. The first application was rejected and therefore the objections and reasonings remain unchanged so I believe the application should once again be rejected. I am the immediate neighbour and suffer from dementia and severe anxiety which is acutely worsened by stress originating from change of circumstances and nosy neighbours. Inevitably a property housing many residents and teenagers will create more noise and disruption to my fixed routine which will certainly cause me more stress and worry when compared to the existing status quo. Thank you

Kind regards
