Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Despite multiple objections from the community, the devastation being inflicted to our lovely area being incredibly visible including increased rubbish and fly tipping being observed around the sites and local area. It is unbelievable to witness the lack of enforcement against decisions which leads one to think this is a deliberate strategy to put through multiple confusing requests for planning to ensure maximum confusion amongst the community which will limit objections against each request as mistakenly people will think they it is felt it was have already acted therefore opening the way to approval. It saddens me that people who are law abiding feel very helpless and yet there is no acknowledgment or action.

Kind regards
