Reasons for comment:

Comments:	The owners of 44 Lewis Rd have clearly stated to me part of the garage would be turned into a hair dressing saloon. 44 Lewis Rd is a private residential property and should not be turned into a commercial property. Parking on Lewis Rd is already difficult without adding more cars to the area. 44 Lewis Rd plans are not in keeping with the surrounding homes, due to its flat roof and black cladding. The windows at the back on the first floor will remove all privacy in my back garden. The bedroom window and en-suite window on the first floor right hand side also invade my privacy at my front door and hall way. As 44 Lewis Rd has already ignored planning permission by building a dwelling at the bottom of their garden they should be penalised and not granted this application.
