Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I am objecting to the change of use [REDACTED] because there already appears to be antisocial youngsters living there who are causing considerable aggravation. For the last three nights we have been woken at around 2am there has been youngsters on the front step banging on the front door for 15 minutes at a time, shouting, fighting, making it impossible to sleep. This is extremely stressful. We have always got on well [REDACTED] enjoyed living on this row of houses where people are quiet and well-mannered. If this current situation is a sign of things to come then I object wholeheartedly to the proposed change of use and would question whether it has started already.
