Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The reason for my objection Is the all around infrastructure runs ok not good but ok . The issues is when the A2 has a issue our roads turn into a bypass without the extra cars . And utilities. On our properties are at full stretch with electricity outages and slow broadband . My worst fear is doctor's , dentist and schools are At full capacity already . 100 plus houses is min 200 extra poeple and 200 extra cars can we cope with that no i do not agree that this planning for extra properties should get the go ahead Many thank [REDACTED]

Kind regards
