Details of the pre-application advice received

'Thank you for your time at your premises above yesterday, 12 June 2023. During my appointment I inspected a rear 'orangery' extension to your premises. 21 Coutts Avenue is a semi-detached house, and the extension was assessed against Class A of Permitted Development – Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 (as amended.)

The extension projected 3.7 metres from the original rear wall of the premises, Permitted Development provides 3 metres for a semi-detached house. As the extension has been built, prior approval, which allows for extensions up to 6 metres is not available, as this process must be applied for before any building works are constructed. Whilst a minor deviation, the bricks of the extension do not match the original materials of the main house, although they are soft and neutral in colour.

Because the extension is over 3 metres in depth from the original rear wall of the house and because the materials (bricks) do not match the original bricks of the house the extension does not conform to Permitted Development and forms a breach of planning control. Building works conducted without the benefit of planning approval are at financial risk'.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
