Reasons for comment:

Comments: Regarding the adjoining wall.
It comes off our extension and is in our side of the garden. Which matches our wall the other side.
If number 28 wanted to rebuild that wall.
I would like it back in the same place as my patio tiles go up to the wall. Also we have lights and electric socket attached to that wall which would all need putting back. Also regarding the brick I would like it to match the other side.

Kind regards
