Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Absolutely not! I have my horses near there if they get permission it won't just stop at that! But they have come along absolutely destroyed all the trees leading up to there not a care given what so ever!!! If they get permission all the little plots around Bev Smits will get it to! They have no respect for people using the road with there horses they drive far to fast, if they get permission I want permission too, to live on my land

Kind regards
