Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This proposed development would significantly change the land and area around it. The people who are currently living in this land with no legal rights to do so, have already caused very severed damage to the surrounding area and Nurstead Lane / Whitepost Lane, which shows they have no regard for any laws protecting the site. There is a current high court injunction on this land stopping the development, which is also being completely ignored. The court order states that to ignore it you may be subject to imprisonment and fines. This is all being completely disregarded by the travellers that have decided to live on this site for the last few years and are moving MORE homes onto it. This must be denied and they must be removed.

Kind regards
