| Reasons for comment: | |
| Comments: | 154 houses with an average of 4 people in each house, over 600 new occupants. Surgeries are already stretched, do we need to put more pressure on our doctors?all local schools are over subscribed, roads will become more congested with each home having an average of 2 cars. Not to mention losing that lovely view from the top of Istead rise. Greenbelt was set up for a reason. A big fat NO from me |

Kind regards
