Reasons for comment:
Comments:	A few years ago up the road from this place, [REDACTED] decided to wreck woodland and moved caravans in. The state and the conditions they lived like was horrendous. Burning rubbish, digging up the road for water, anti social behaviour. It's not nice for the wildlife, residents and all we all have been affected by this. So having another site like this in the area we are worried it will turn into this again.

Kind regards
