| Reasons for comment: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Comments:            | I would like to lodge my objection to this application, on the grounds of evidence destruction already caused to ancient woodland and hedgerows. This is not an appropriate use of this land, which borders public footpaths, arable land and animal lodgings. Not to mention the other residents nearby. |

Kind regards
