Reasons for comment:

Comments:	The devastation these people have caused to the surrounding woodland and wildlife is atrocious. It should not at all allowed it's disgusting. I do not feel safe walking alone, with my horses, or with my dogs, or even driving down these roads. These people are unpleasant to talk to and scary to be near. They constantly flytip and I believe they are making our area go downhill. They should definitely not be allowed to change the rights of this land. It's disrespectful to neighbours and the whole community. They have been seen to cut other peoples trees down and have no respect for anyone else living in the surrounding areas or respect to nature. If they want to live somewhere with no nature go to a city. It's completely outrageous they have the audacity to appeal the use of this land.
