Reasons for comment:

Comments:	- ruin natural woodland and animal habitats - general eyesore -lower house prices in the local area -already have lots of nearby change of use of land for mobile homes do not need anymore of them. - Starts off with just a couple caravans/mobile homes but will end up like Fowlers stone woods with multiple mobile homes and left a mess behind. How do we know this will not be the same case again? - where will they source their water/electric from, hopefully not by using the local villages mains. - Rubbish collections or will it just be dumped?
