Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I've been living in Gravesend for over 30 years now and am glad to see that there are new and fresh ideas to help better the Muslim community within the town. My son has mental health needs and he will hugely benefit from the services and counselling which is aimed to be provided by Al Haq academy. I will be very saddened if the project and proposal was to be rejected, as there has been no initiatives like these proposed in the past. My grandson who is 3 will also be enrolled in the school as he lives very close by to Parrock street, so very convenient for him and my daughter. This facility will be a community asset that promotes inclusion, wellbeing, and positive development for all ages. Its location makes it easily accessible for many local residents, helping reduce travel congestion and increasing community cohesion. I strongly urge the council to support this application and allow Al Haq Academy to establish a place that will serve the spiritual, emotional, and social needs of a diverse and growing community.
