Reasons for comment:

Comments: [REDACTED] d have lived locally for most of my life. I and my family have supported the pub throughout this time and it was the heart of Harvel, particularly since the shops and factory shut and the bus stopped running.
So many village organisations have started in or used the pub, such as the Running Club and the Investment Club. Celebrations used to take place there and the village was a sadder and lonelier place when it closed. Also for the numerous walkers and riders who used to have the 'Ammie' as their destination. Recently the area has lost the Vigo pub and the Green Man. Losing the Amazon has really hit at the village way of life here and made it much harder to return to the supportive and friendly companionship that was Harvel pre-Covid.

Kind regards
