Reasons for comment:

Comments:	[REDACTED] the owner of apartment A is applying for the basement to be used as residential premises. Basement- there is a basement without windows and access to sunlight. These are not rooms for people! An important argument is that the owner of flat A does not live at this apartment. he rented for the tenants. [REDACTED] I can't imagine turning the basement into an apartment!!!! If he wants destroy anything outside for example the staircase fence I categorically disagree, He wants to rent again - I don't agree. I emphasise once again; he doesn't live here, but hi thinks that everything belongs to him!!!!including the yard!!!! We have a quiet community here and we don't want anyone to destroy it [REDACTED] wall and garden . I'm afraid he does it for rent! I would like to ask you to positively consider my letter, due to later problems or cases referred to the court. With regards [REDACTED]
