Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I'm finding it very strange how over a few days, 3rd, 4th & 5th of October, this petition has suddenly seen an increase in those who "support" this planning petition. I wonder who these people are who support it? Wonder if they actually live in the area that it affects? Have they actually said why they support it or have they just jumped on and put support with no explanation? The more I see and hear regarding this chicken shop, the more suspicious I get! This whole situation sounds incredibly dodgy and I will be very shocked if this isn't fully looked into by the council. I'm also assuming that a certain points someone from the council is coming down to this shop to check the area and if they truly believe that's it could actually work, spoilers, it won't work & you will end up with some very angry residents! Also, who on EARTH is ordering fried chicken at 8am?!? That sounds ridiculous! 8am to 9pm Monday to Sunday, do be serious! If this was round the corner from where you lived I'm sure you wouldn't like it! We've already got people blocking property/garages of the residents in the area using this shop! It's not acceptable and the council needs to stop any further planning permission for this premises and anymore like it! Utterly ridiculous!
