Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The design is excellent, it provides up to date facilities for the family. It will meet Government energy reductions, the building regulations guidance. A larger family home in this location does not put pressure on the Green Belt as Housing Developers and LPA's run out of land for larger families. A reduction in bungalows due to the development suggested by the Parish is disappointing as there is no policy in Government or Local plans to prohibit. With 600000 new residents coming in per year to the UK this is the equivalent of 2 Portsmouth's. We need larger family accommodation. They have a better spending powder than small bungalows.

Kind regards
