Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Longfield Road at that point is bad enough now with the school and cars parked both sides, especially now dark mornings and evenings, cars speeding through there, without giving way, and to allow access into a housing development with cars and delivery lorries will be creating a very dangerous situation in the making. Where are the visitors going to park? We all know that modern estates never have enough parking, perhaps they can park in the road! It is completely alarming that a development of this size to be built next to a specialised school for vulnerable children. To build on this high grade farmland is despicable when are plenty of brownfield sites on which to build.

Kind regards
