Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The proposed access for 350 houses may lead to around 700 cars on the roads, alongside delivery and service vehicles, creating significant concerns. The parade of shops has already turned into an accident hotspot. The area near The George Inn is particularly narrow, forming a pinch point where larger vehicles struggle to pass, contributing to congestion along the A227. This land is vital for food production and is part of a protected green belt. The predicted increase in traffic is likely to overwhelm the Meopham area. With three applications being considered simultaneously, we worry about the safety of children attending our local primary, SEN, and secondary schools. Additionally, the existing transport links are slow and inadequate, which may force more people to rely on the A227 and the A2 for their daily commutes.

Kind regards
