Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Longfield Road is quite narrow at this point and with school traffic parking along that stretch, will make it extremely difficult for traffic to pass. It will make the Helen Allison School be situated in the middle of a housing estate! So nice, at the moment, that the vulnerable children have open spaces around them. Pity to destroy all the countryside in an old village. Where will all the additional cars park? Every home has at least 2 cars now!

Kind regards
