Reasons for comment:

Comments: While I understand the Landlords right to enter into retirement, the failure of the pub to re-open post covid has left the village with little in the way of a social hub within which to meet. It was clear for some time that the pub was being run down & hence latterly became not a particularly attractive place to visit with limited facilities or attractions. It therefore became a self-fulfilling prophesy that it became financially unviable although I suspect that with the right approach & under the correct management it could once again become a profitable business. Clearly the historical apportionment of the building, relationships within the village & the passage of time since the pub last opened for business have resulting in a very difficult position but overall, I feel that the application should be rejected

Kind regards
