Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I realise homes are needed, but as everything associated with these ideas where are the influx of new people going to put their children in a already overcrowded primary school also the doctors surgery in Higham is due to close shortly which in itself is ridiculous which of course means more patients having to go to the Cliffe surgeries what are already overwhelmed what with the extra homes being built there also the village is already busting with thru traffic in a unregulated safety area so building more houses in Higham makes no sense

Kind regards
