Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Meopham is the wrong place for a large number of new builds. The infrastructure isn't there to support new houses: water, sewerage, roads, shops, bus services, schools, medical facilities, etc. the village is large enough already and such a project would negatively impact of the character and appearance of the village. Several years ago GBC promised to use existing brownfield sites for house building. Please don't go back on this promise. These brownfield sites are closer to amenities than Meopham is and they would give Gravesend the rejuvenation it desperately needs.

Kind regards
