Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I fully support this application. This family have been farming in the area for many years, (longer than the 27 years I have lived here)and long may they continue to do so. Moving from an adjacent farm as tenants, they are now in the process of rebuilding their farming business I believe. Working farms require farm buildings, and British farmers need our support, not our opposition. I know from local social media community pages that they have a huge amount of support from Vigo residents, including me. Good luck to them with the planning application, which if approved will be beneficial to the local area.
