Reasons for comment:

Comments: This will further increase the parking problems, when I visit my family I can barely find a space as it is. There is no more space to add parking for extra houses. Madness.

Why is there a bin store going out the back? The bins should be going out the front like the other houses otherwise they will be going through Coombe Road. The alleyway is private access for Coombe Road only, not for Whitehill so they can put more rubbish in the road, attracting vermin.

Kind regards
