Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The scale of such proposal dominates the nearest settled community. Such static caravans are not in keeping with the surroundings of the The area can not accommodate any development of this kind, there is nothing similar in style or character in the area there is also the concern that there will be to integration with the life of the village as we know it. There is no parking available already due to the busy road which is a constant issue with a pub already which means parking along all the roads when busy. Permanent parking will make it difficult for emergency services to access pear tree and bowsden lane.

Kind regards
