Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: I wish to register my objection as a neighbor. I previously submitted a comprehensive comment during the last consultation and reaffirm my stance on those remarks.

The applicant [REDACTED] owns a residence at the end of the road that abuts the wall of PLA.

As previously communicated, [REDACTED] the owner of this property is attempting to convert a two-bedroom dwelling into a larger residence. After moving in, he initially extended the loft, a process that lasted six months and involved three different builders. Subsequently, he carried out substantial renovations to the basement, disregarding the impact on noise levels and neighboring residents. He owns four cars, most of which have their license plates removed by their drivers, who are his children, before entering the property.

The proposed construction would obstruct the view from my kitchen and garden of the River Thames, which I find unacceptable. If the owner wishes to accommodate an extended family, he should consider purchasing a larger property elsewhere. Since his occupation, there has been an increase in crime, not to mention the nuisance caused by his dogs barking continuously day and night. These disturbances are well known across various social media platforms.

[REDACTED] demonstrates a lack of respect for neighbors. He appears to be flaunting his wealth, derived from substantial fees paid by international students from Pakistan and Bangladesh. While he is entitled to enjoy his wealth in a detached property, it is objectionable that, for many years, residents of [REDACTED] Clarendon Road and other nearby properties have not enjoyed peaceful possession of their homes. Additionally, numerous cars belonging to his family frequently block legitimate parking bays designated for permit holders.

Should Gravesham Council approve this application, it would constitute a miscarriage of justice. Kindly refer to my previous extensive objection that was submitted earlier.

Kind regards
