Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am more concerned by the loss of our green spaces. So much of our wildlife habitats are being concreted over. Why? So that the government can meet their housing targets. There are so many huge empty derelict buildings that could be used. But an empty field is easier and creates more profit for the developers. They will then be sold to greedy private landlords, many of whom live abroad, and let out at huge rents to our own people.

Kind regards
