*Assessment Note - A.3(a) - no information was provided to enable this question to be answered. However, it is not directly related to the Prior Approval Extension Application itself. The proposed single storey rear extension would need to adhere to all of the above to be considered permitted development and further information would be required in the event of a submission to obtain a Lawful Development Certificate. In this instance, an informative can be used to remind the applicant of the requirement for materials to be of a similar appearance to those used on the exterior of the dwelling.

Analysis

Under Class A.1 (g) of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (GDPO) (England) Order 2015, as amended, a single family dwelling can extend beyond the rear wall by 6 metres in the case of a semi-detached property, as long as it does not exceed 4 metres in height.

As set out in the GDPO, Class A.4 (2), the developer has provided sufficient information to support the application; application form, site location plan and block plans.

The information provided show the proposed single storey rear extension is within the parameters set out in the GPDO; 5.00 metres deep, a maximum height of 3.25 metres, with an eaves height of 2.97 metres.

The adjoining properties were consulted in accordance with A.4 (5) and no representations were received. Therefore A.4 (7) has not been triggered and impact on neighbouring amenity does not require investigation.

It is considered that the details and documents provided with the application are sufficient and no further information is required under A.4 (8) to determine the proposed development.

Conclusion

The proposed development complies with THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (GENERAL PERMITTED DEVELOPMENT) (ENGLAND) ORDER 2015, AS AMENDED, and it is considered PRIOR APPROVAL IS NOT REQUIRED, subject to the imposition of informatives relating to the extent of this prior approval, the development to accord with the information provided, the requirement for materials to be of a similar appearance to those used on the exterior of the dwelling and the requirement to comply with Building Regulations and Party Wall Act.

Recommendation: PRIOR APPROVAL IS NOT REQUIRED
