Reasons for comment:

Comments:	This is a project which is invaluable to our community Parrock st car park is a stone throw away so the parking congestion argument is not realistic, also it will be a centre for social work, food bank, homeless advisory and youth club, other religious institutions are not offering this or on the level proposed, youth rehabilitation is essential and with the head of the academy a prison chaplain, this academy is more then equipped to tackle the task of reducing crime/rehabilitation. Also the trustees and those heading the academy are from diverse backgrounds, clearly identifying the unity which this institution will bring to our community. Unity and diversity is what is required for harmony and integration within communities. This is such a necessity and vital to the needs of all societies.
