Comments:

I absolutely 100% totally object to this planning application.
The man at this house has already claimed the public alleyway as his own, and has designated it as his own garden.
If I want to make improvements to my garden, anything that I purchase has to come through the house instead of around the alley
I have not seen the plans for his intended extension, so I do not know how far back he intends to come.
From my back garden, I have a lovely view of the river Thames. It is a major selling point for my house I believe.
If this man erects this extension, I believe it will vastly decrease the value of my house.
I am also of the opinion that if this planning proposal is put through, I believe he may want to go further and have a second story erected in the future.
This man must be stopped! He has no right to do this.

Kind regards
