Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Road can not support more traffic. They already have 5 caravans illegally on site. Anyone else except gypsies would have already been legally removed from site. They have totally closed the road once for all day without notice illegally. Why should exceptions be made. Will they add to road repairs. A temp toilet arrived 2 days ago. Where was effluent disposed off prior to that? Why can they not get planning prior to moving in like everyone else. There are no exceptions for anyone else.

Kind regards
