Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Planning applications like should not be considered at all by Gravesham Council. Government policy states that Councils must prioritise "Brownfield First" before releasing other areas. There are many brownfield sites in the area that need to be developed first. There is no justification for planning proposals on green belt land. This is clearly a proposal aimed solely at maximising developer's profit at the expense of biodiversity, the natural environment and our irreplaceable greenbelt. Other obvious critical considerations that are not being addressed are lack of water supplies, Doctors, public transport and public footpaths making it a car dependent area

Kind regards
