Reasons for comment:

Comments: The ruthless tree felling and devastation of flora and fauna in Whitepost Lane resulting from transporting a mobile home on this Green Belt land demonstrates that this planning application is clearly inappropriate.

[REDACTED] originally applied for planning permission to build a bricks and mortar house on this site, stating at the time that he had a house in Northfleet - subsequently verified by an Appeals Inspector. Regardless of traveller/Gypsy ancestry, [REDACTED] does not have a nomadic life style associated with this ethnicity, borne out by his static residence. Any such claim as the basis for planning permission is neither valid nor relevant and no special or exceptional circumstances apply.

The provision of a day room implies long term permanent static residence.

The Enforcement Notice on this site has been systematically challenged and Planning Law taken for a fool - very successfully to date. Like minded are encouraged to follow suit by example. Long overdue decisive action is warranted to terminate the delaying tactics used to occupy this site illegally.

Kind regards
