Reasons for comment:

Comments:	This site in my opinion is entirely unsuitable for the development of 100 houses for the following reasons: Increased traffic movements onto an already very busy road where access would be difficult and dangerous, especially during rush hour. The site having previously not been developed is clearly green belt, not grey belt [whatever that is] something someone dreamt up without a clear understanding of land designations. No provision is being considered for the extra doctors, dentist and other local facilities already operating at full capacity that would be required by all the extra inhabitants. The effect on the environment and the quality of people's lives cannot be underestimated.
