Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This was a valued and essential hub of the village community. We don't believe that the pub was non viable as the community supported this location and it is our understanding that the owner wished to retire. Retirement is not a reason to close a long standing public house that services a community. Other vendors should be allowed the opportunity to make this establishment a success again. The owners have taken a much valued venue away from the community.

Kind regards
