Reasons for comment:

Comments: The reasons stated by the current owners are a gross fabrication of fact combined with a bizarre rambling paranoid rant. The business was viable for many many years during which the village hall,cricket club and village events were also happening. There is a clear intention to run down the business in recent history to preempt this application. The current landlady has managed to intentionally or otherwise offend discourage and deter much of the existing trade and possible future trade. The business is viable. It simply needs new owners who want to run a successful business and have the skills to do so.

Kind regards
