Reasons for comment:

Comments: I used to have the odd drink in the Amazon and tiger when I visited my friends who live nearby.

I strongly object to the change of use from a public house. The pub has an asset of community value and was always an important hub of the village and attracted regulars and visitors. If this property was sold as a public house it should be used as it was purchased.

Sold as a public house and in the right hands I believe the A&T would be a very profitable proposition and more importantly bring the residents of Harvel and surrounding area closer together as a community.

Kind regards
