Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: I object to this application on many levels but will focus mainly on the most important point:

I don't believe due process has been followed in order to value the pub(independently) and offer it for sale at a reasonable price to see market interest(as I believe is accepted protocol).If the pub was up for sale for a reasonable length of time and there was no interest I would be more likely to accept this proposal as acceptable.

Unfortunately we know this has not happened so I personally don't believe this should be allowed.

Being a licensee brings certain commitments and responsibilities and is not something to be just consigned to history because you don't want it anymore.

Kind regards
