Reasons for comment:

Comments: No brainer supporting this. Just think of the offset to carbon emissions. No cars driving to and from the pub. Couldn't think of a better reason to support the change of use. Can only be better for the environment. No waste either. Also surely it's better having this as private dwelling than a commercial one in the small village of Harvel. It will look aesthetically more pleasing also. Win win for everyone. Support 100%

Kind regards
