Reasons for comment:

Comments: The landlord has owned this property for many years, every year the trade has become quieter and quieter, pubs everywhere have begun closing down for this very reason, culture has changed and as a local pub, this wasn't supported by the local community. The pub had been closed for quite some time before the current landlords purchase, there are other local pubs also within a couple of mile radius, the property is free hold and the owner of the property should be free to do as they please with it if they cannot make a reliable living through it as a business.

Kind regards
