Reasons for comment:

Comments: The Amazon & Tiger has been at the heart of the local community for the last 17 years that I have lived in this area. It has been home to numerous social activities during that time and provided a base for various clubs and activities. It is unfortunate that the current owners have decided to close the pub down citing that it is commercially unviable. This decision has come as a shock to the local community. Any business relies on it's customers to continue to survive, unfortunately the current owners have alienated their customers by closing the pub. There is a very strong opinion amongst the local community that the pub is commercially viable, but the current owners refuse to negotiate any form of purchase of the pub by the local community.

Kind regards
