Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The Amazon and Tiger is both geographically, culturally and literally the centre of the village of Harvel. To allow this change of use would effectively erase Harvel as a typical village, it will become another urban area to drive through, completely characterless. When my wife and I moved here 8 years ago a large influence on our decision was the pub and village aspect it offered. We see the community spirit in people when there is a national celebration like the coronation last year, as the pub was closed, Harvel was a lifeless district, no longer a village. To allow a change of use of this public house will irrevocably change the character of Harvel itself.

Kind regards
